SAW AN ANGEL AFTER WIFE'S DEATH.

A unique memorial to his wife, who died suddenly at the Palatine Hotel, in Newburg, N. Y., a year ago, is being erected by Mr. C. H. Van Ness at his home in Cornwell.

The exterior of the upper story at the south end of the house has been so decorated as to represent a background of clouds. Placed in front of the cloud is the figure of an angel, forty-two inches in height, with one hand pointing heavenward. The other hand, on which rests a passion flower, points downward to the name "E. L. Van Ness" in gold lettering, which extends across the entire width of the gable. The statue is of Italian marble, was carved in Italy, and cost about $2,000.

Mr. Van Ness is having placed in front of his house another statue. This one is bronze, representing a mother and child. Mr. Van Ness says that the cloud and angel, in fact the entire memorial design, was observed to the sky by him one beautiful autumn afternoon while he was gazing after the death of his wife. Mr. and Mrs. Van Ness were married for thirty-two years. He says that doing that length of time they were never separated for a longer period than two hours.

RICH YOUNG POLITICIANS.—Many young men of great wealth and high social position, who were carried into the war with Spain by the wave of patriotic feeling which swept over the country at the beginning of hostilities, are turning their attention to politics.

This awakening of interest in national affairs which was brought about by the war promises to make the Congressional elections in this city especially interesting. Both republicans and democrats are seeking to give the people a chance to recognize and reward the devotion which led men of large fortunes to sacrifice their ease in the service of their country.

As a result men who count their possessions by millions will be pitted against each other, and social leaders whose names have been better known in the exclusive set than to the people at large will contend for popular favor at the polls.

Tammany will hold its Congressional convention next Thursday, and the republicans will nominate a week from Wednesday. Following were the probable nominees, according to the present state of affairs.

District. Rep. Dem.
1—W. Alexander, Nicholas Muller.
2—J. M. Mitchell, W. Astor Childer.
3—Charles Aldrich, Thos. J. Bradley.
10—W. Haplin, Amos J. Cummings.
11—E. A. McA pin, William Sulzer.
12—H. B. Brockway, Jefferson M. Levy.
13—J. A. Quinn, O. H. Belmont.
14—L. E. Quigg, Andrew J. Connick.
15—Philip B. Low, Stewart M. Bice.

If the intentions of the political managers on both side are carried out the greatest battle between millionaires for political preferment that this country has ever seen will be fought in the Thirteenth Congressional district in this city. (New York Herald.)

A TON OF EELS.—The equinoctial storms in York county, Pa., last week, started the eels in their annual run to tidewater for the winter. Many of the families living along the streams tributary to the Susquehanna river depend upon the fall catch of eels for part of their winter's meat. They are dried, smoked and salted, the same as herring. The eels are now swarming to the Susquehanna in shoals. The owner of Frederick Bowers, the champion eel fisherman of York Haven, and several friends captured 1,845 eels, all of good size. They distributed them around, and the next day the whole town dined on fried eels. The eels weighed about a ton.

Robbed the Grave.
A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters,' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at E. S. Allen's and E. S. Leadbeater & Sons', Drug Stores.

WE GIVE NO REWARDS.
An offer of this kind is the meanness of deceptions. Our plan is to give every one a chance to try the merit of Ely's Cream Balm, the original Balm for the cure of Catarrh, Hay Fever and Cold in the Head, by mailing for 10 cents a trial size to test its curative powers. We mail the 50-cent size also, and the druggist keeps it. Test it and you are the druggist kept. The treatment Relief is immediate and a cure follows. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York.
